

1.1 IPSec over Business VPN Service

When required by Customer, data encryption over the VPN network can be provided through IPSec tunnels with the associated security services:

- Traffic encryption;
- Authentication services; or
- Digital certificate management through the Orange Public Key Infrastructure service.

The Orange IPSec service can be based both on routers or specific additional devices according to customer network requirements, provided and managed by Orange in addition to the Business VPN router.